Provincetown Art Association and Museum brings art-house films to Whaler's Wharf

PAAM filmArt returns with a roster of fifteen art-house films

Provincetown, MA: In partnership with the Provincetown International Film Festival (PIFF), PAAM is proud to present a bi-monthly film series screening art-house and art documentary films, ranging from the new to the classic. A discussion led by Howard Karren - owner of Alden Gallery and a former editor of Premier Magazine - follows each film.

All screenings are held at Whaler's Wharf Cinema located on the second floor of 237 Commercial Street in Provincetown. Screenings are not held at PAAM.

Admission is by Season Pass ($75), available to PAAM members. Season Passes are available for purchase at the PAAM Front Desk (open Thursday-Sunday, 12-5pm), over the phone (508.487.1750), or by mailing a check made out to PAAM and sent to: PAAM filmArt, 460 Commercial Street, Provincetown MA 02657.

A complete schedule of films is available at www.paam.org.

Arts and Alzheimer's Initiative at Provincetown Art Association and Museum

This collaboration between PAAM and Alzheimer's Services of Cape Cod is a free program offered to individuals with Alzheimer's and their caregivers

Provincetown, MA: Provincetown Art Association and Museum (PAAM) is pleased to resume its collaboration with Alzheimer's Services of Cape Cod & the Islands, Inc. through the Arts & Alzheimer's Initiative (AAI). The AAI program, first developed by the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, utilizes artwork to assist individuals with Alzheimer's or other dementias to stimulate long-term memory through facilitated art discussions. The final session for 2011 meets Tuesday November 15 from 10:30-Noon.

This free program is limited in size and pre-registration is required. Caregivers who would like to participate in the program with their care recipient should call Molly Perdue at the Alzheimer's Services of Cape Cod & the Islands at 508 775 5656 or molly@alzcapecod.org or Lynn Stanley, lstanley@paam.org, 508 487 1750.

New Painting Group at Provincetown Art Association and Museum

Provincetown, MA: A new painting group has formed at Provincetown Art Association and Museum (PAAM). This group will meet twice a week in a studio at PAAM in 4 hour blocks. The idea is to have some structured time and space for painting, without the guidance of a teacher. All styles, media and levels are welcome. Still-lives and/or project ideas will be offered each session, with no obligation to participate.

Meeting times are: Tuesday and Thursday, October 25-December 15; Tuesdays 12-4, Thursdays 9:30-1:30. The cost for all 16 sessions is $150, 8 sessions for $75 or $10/session.

Project ideas are welcome from everyone. All can benefit from informal critique of each others' work, and the group atmosphere for talking about and making art.

No pre-registration is required, walk-ins are welcome. Please contact Grace gryderomalley@paam.org with questions.
